LA EDAD DE LOS MILAGROS: COMO ADOPTAR UNA NUEVA PERSPECTIVA ANTE LA MEDUREZ (AGE OF MIRACLES)

Williamson, Marianne

Hay House (11/2008)

P $14.95

1401922724 9781401922726

While some look at life after 50 as just marking time until death comes, Marianne Williamson says it should instead be looked at as a time to accept one's life and live it as it was meant to be lived. Middle age should be viewed as a magical turning point when what has been learned from failures and successes can be used to bring an understanding of what each breath of life is for: a time she calls "The Age of Miracles."

LA MUJER DEL MAQUIS (WOMAN OF THE MAQUIS)Espasa Calpe (10/2008) T $50.50
8467029781 9788467029789

After Franco's victory in the Spanish Civil War, those who had opposed him were persecuted mercilessly. A handful of anti-guerrilla forces, known as the Maquis, fled to the hills of Cantabria to escape imprisonment and torture. Among the resistance fighters were Paco Bedoya and Mercedes San Honorio, whose love for each other endured across great distances and unspeakable ordeals. Drawing on real testimony and historical documentation, this is Mercedes' story from her point of view. Winner of the 2008 Espasa Award.

Carpentier, Alejo F 08626634

EL REINO DE ESTE MUNDO (KINGDOM OF THE WORLD)Rayo (01/2009) P $14.95
0061711896 9780061711893

A few years after its liberation from French colonialist rule, Haiti experienced a period of unsurpassed brutality, horror, and superstition under the reign of the black King Henri-Christophe. Through the eyes of the ancient slave Ti-Noel, readers witness the destruction of the black regime—built on the same corruption and contempt for human life that brought down the French. Originally published in 1949, this novel demonstrates Carpentier's use of the "fantastic real" to depict the interplay of occult religion, racial hatred, erotomania, and delusions of grandeur.

SUENO DE INOCENCIA (THE DREAM OF INNOCENCE)

Planeta (06/2008) P $13.95
9703707572 9789703707577

Appointed Pope in 1198, Innocent III revolutionized the Catholic Church at its darkest hour. The Holy Father launched two crusades, founded a police force to oversee the orthodoxy, invented methods to control followers through the sacrament of confession, and established the insolubility of marriage and the concept of transubstantiation. This novel, however, explores another side to Innocent, a man who pursued carnal love as intensely as he pursued piety, a man granted great power but burdened with great responsibility.
