

Next Month in

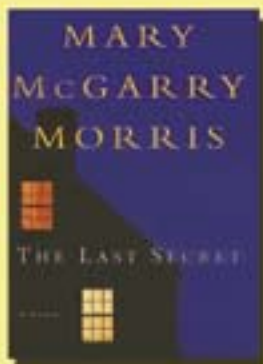

PRIME

April's Issue

Travel will be the focus of April's Librarian's Picks. Best places to visit, travel memoirs...for those on the move, this list will be indispensable.

New and Noteworthy

April's PRIME will feature The Last Secret by author Mary McGarry Morris. Morris is the author of Vanished, nominated for the National Book Award and the PEN/Faulkner Award; A Dangerous Woman, chosen by Time magazine as one of the "Five Best Novels of the Year" and made into a major motion picture; Songs in Ordinary Time, an Oprah Book Club selection and a CBS television movie; and the highly acclaimed Fiona Range. Her latest is about a woman whose privileged life begins to unravel when she discovers her husband's affair, and her own past begins to resurface. The Last Secret explores the irreparable consequences of one family's crimes of the heart.

by Ginny Strait-Trowbridge

Special Features

Rugged and Romance flyers will accompany April PRIME.

Continuations will be a comprehensive list of real estate titles.

www.books.brodart.com

Visit Brodart's Web site to find out how Brodart can partner with your library to serve your patrons.